

10 DAY TASMANIA TOUR

MOTEL TOUR

Price Includes:

- Airfares
- Motel Accommodation
- Most evening meals and breakfasts
- Entries to various attractions (as noted)

Day 1: Fly to Hobart. On arrival we are met by our coach and transported to our Motel. N.B. Snack evening meal provided in your room.

Day 2: Hobart, a wonderful day touring the city, Salemenca, Mt Wellington, Battery Point, Botanical Gardens and an afternoon Boat Cruise on the Derwent River. N.B. Boat Cruise included.

Day 3: A whole day trip to Port Arthur to hear and see the dreadful history of Australia's most infamous prison. N.B. Entry to Port Arthur included.

Day 4: A visit to a wildlife park to see the Tasmanian Devil, then onto the Cadbury Factory. The rest of the day is yours, simply relax or go into town. N.B. Cadbury Factory and Wildlife Park included.

Day 5: Off to the West Coast, via New Norfolk and very impressive Russell Falls and along the mountain roads to Lake St Clair then onto the spectacular bald hills of

Queenstown. (The vegetation killed by acid rain emitted from the copper smelters of earlier times.)

Day 6: To Strahan for a wonderful cruise on the Gordon River, one of the most beautiful rivers in Australia. In the afternoon onto the old Mining Town of Zeehan, named after Able Tasman's ship. N.B. Boat cruise included.

Day 7: Up the West Coast to Roseberry, beautiful Hellyer Gorge and on the North Coast to Stanley, a most unusual feature "The Nut" where there is a chairlift. Along the North Coast to Burnie and Devonport.

Day 8: South along the Tamar River to Launceston taking in the unique "Swiss Village" on the way. We tour Launceston and Cataract Gorge.

Day 9: Via the Tasman Highway to Scottsdale and the old tin mining town of Derby. Then onto the East Coast and the towns of St. Helens and St Marys. Later a visit to Perth and back to Launceston.

Day 10: Down the Midland Highway through undulating farming areas, visiting historic Cambelltown, Ross and Richmonds, site of Australia's oldest Bridge. In the afternoon we depart for the airport and our flight home.
